Some considerable damage was done Halloween night by the youngsters. Some of the concrete spheres off the posts of the wall around the St. John's Catholic church property were removed and destroyed. The officers are running down those who perpetrated the wanton destruction and will make it hot for them. The harmless celebration of the time of year is all right, but the destroying of property is abominable and should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

NOTICE—All persons having accounts against the Board of Infirmary Directors are requested to present same to them as soon as possible, and no accounts against them should be held longer than three months.

Burned to Death.

One of those extremely sad accidents happened in Logan, Friday evening. Little Violet Shultz, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shultz, at 303 W. Second St., was burning leaves, and having on a long skirt of her mother's, the flames caught her dress, and not being able to tear the clothes from herself, the little girl was horribly burned before help could answer her screams. Death relieved her suffering in a short time. It was indeed a most deplorable incident, and the devoted parents are almost crushed with grief, and their many friends and neighbors extend their deep sympathy. The funeral occurred Wednesday.

Will Enforce the Law

Beginning Nov. 8, 1909, the humane officers will strictly enforce the laws governing blanket protection and unbracing of horses left standing in the streets or public highways in Hocking county. Owners and drivers of all horses or mules are required to robe the animal at every stop of any duration and the society officers will be assisted by the police force, constable and other officers in strictly enforcing the requirements. Those who fail to properly protect their horses are liable to a fine of $5 for the first offense and imprisonment and a $25 fine for the second. It is the most inhuman thing a man can do to leave a steaming horse weary from a long drive standing in the cold, without a blanket covering, reined up by the hour.

The law will be fully enforced. OFFICERS OF HUMANE SOCIETY OF HOCKING COUNTY.

MRS. AND MRS. HENRY SCHRADER AND FAMILY

The Mayor is a Joker.

Mayor Hilliard, of Roseville, Muskingum county has issued a proclamation ordering all of the saloons of that village closed on election day. The mayor calls attention to the state law which requires all places where intoxicating liquors are sold to be closed on that day. The joke of it is Roseville is thoroughly dry and has not even a beer-place. It is either force of habit on the part of the mayor, or he is a sly humorist.
